Supervision Controls

The employee receives assignments and instructions from the Deputy Director. Course of action, deadlines, and priorities may be established by procedure, the supervisor, or the employee, depending on the assignment. The employee initiates routine activities without supervisory direction. Problems or situations not covered by instructions are normally referred to the supervisor for resolution. The employee's work is reviewed for accuracy, completion, and compliance with policies and procedures. The employee has no supervisory responsibilities.

Guidelines

Admin Support performs routine duties by following established HUD and Agency policies and procedures. These guidelines cover most job-related situations and the employee may use independent judgment in making decisions within established parameters and area of expertise. If guidelines do not cover a situation, the employee normally consults the supervisor. Guidelines are generally specific and clear.

Complexity

The employee performs a variety of related, routine, and generally repetitive tasks. The course of action is determined by the supervisor and by established procedures. The employee may coordinate, integrate, and/or prioritize tasks.

Scope and Effect

The employee's contacts are primarily with other employees, tenants, owners/landlords, and participants. Such contacts require the ability to establish and maintain good working relationships on a long-term basis. The purpose of these contacts is to obtain or provide information; plan, coordinate, and advise other activities; motivate, influence, or direct others; and justify, defend, negotiate, or resolve matters and issues concerning HCVP occupancy issues. At times, persons contacted may be skeptical, uncooperative, unreceptive, hostile or willing to express different viewpoints and objectives.

Personal Contacts

Most of the employee's contacts are with Agency employees, tenants, and landlords. The purpose of the contacts is to give or exchange information, provide services, make decisions, negotiate, and resolve problems. Most contacts are structured or confidential in nature and the employee is expected to use normal tact and courtesy.

At times, contacts may be skeptical, uncooperative, unreceptive, hostile, or willing to express different viewpoints and objectives.

Physical Requirements

1. Work is principally sedentary, but may involve some physical exertion, such as kneeling, crouching, or lifting to obtain files and records, and eyestrain from working with computers and other office equipment.
2. Must be able to sit and/or stand for up to eight (8) hours at a time while performing work duties.
3. Must be able to bend, stoop, push, and pull in the performance of work-related duties.
4. Must be able to use fingers bilaterally and unilaterally to operate office equipment.
5. Must have vision and hearing corrected to be able to perform essential job functions.
6. Must be able to establish and maintain effective working relationships with co-workers and clients and perform essential job functions in an environment that will sometimes include increased levels of work-related stress.
7. Must maintain a professional appearance and portray a positive image for the Agency.
8. Must maintain punctuality and attendance as scheduled.
9. An employee may request a reasonable accommodation to mitigate any of the physical requirements listed above.

Work Environment

Work involves the normal risks or discomfort associated with an office environment and is usually in an area that is adequately cooled, heated, lighted, and ventilated.

Other Requirements

1. Must possess a State of Illinois driver's license and maintain a good driving record.
2. Must pass employment drug screening and criminal background check.
3. Must work with the highest degree of confidentiality.
